K-POP

TRAVELERS

시간이 지나면서 조금씩 수그러들지 않을까 했던 K-Pop 열풍은 오히려 시간이 갈수록 더욱 뜨겁게 지구촌 곳곳으로 퍼져 나가고 있습니다. K-Pop 팬들 역시 과거와는 조금씩 달라지고 있습니다. 이제 단순히 인터넷을 통해서 K-Pop 아티스트들의 영상을 찾아보는 데 그치지 않고 자신이 좋아하는 K-Pop 아티스트를 만나고 인터넷에서 본 한국의 다양한 문화를 경험해 보기 위해 직접 한국을 방문하거나 방문하기를 희망하는 K-Pop 팬들이 점차 많아지고 있습니다.

그렇다면 K-Pop을 좋아하고 한국으로의 여행까지 계획하고 있는 이 K-Pop Travelers는 과연 어떤 연령대의 사람들이며, 어떤 여행 스타일을 선호할까요? 또 어디에서 묵으면서 어떤 음식을 먹고, 어떤 장소에 가고 싶어 할까요? 그리고 그들이 한국 여행 중에 마주할 크고 작은 일들을 해결하기 위해 가장 필요한 한국어 표현은 과연 어떤 말들일까요?

필자와 다락원의 한국어출판부 편집진은 이러한 질문들에 대한 많은 고민을 녹여 이 책 한 권에 담고자 했습니다. 여러 외국인들의 설문 조사 의견까지 더한 Korean for K-Pop Travelers는 한국 여행을 결정한 K-Pop Travelers에게 가장 필요한 한국어 표현들을 담은 여행 회화 책인 동시에, 그들의 여행 목적과 스타일에 맞춰 가장 알맞은 여행 코스를 제안해 주는 훌륭한 여행 안내서입니다.

이 책은 K-Pop 아티스트의 콘서트를 관람하기 위해 4박 5일의 일정으로 서울을 방문한 K-Pop Travelers의 한국 여행이라는 콘셉트를 스토리텔링 기법을 적용하여 구성하였습니다. 다른 책들과 차별화되는 점은 이러한 여행 일정과 교재의 한국어 표현들을 생생한 동영상을 통해 만나 볼 수 있다는 것입니다. 이를 위해 현재 활동하고 있는 K-Pop 그룹인 페이버릿의 멤버들이 서울에서 꼭 가 볼 만한 관광지를 다니며 직접 보고, 맛보며, 느낀 체험을 영상에 재미있게 담았습니다. 여행지 곳곳의 매력과 특징들이 담긴 영상에는 한국어 표현과 영어 자막이 함께 들어 있어 학습자의 이해를 더욱 높였습니다.

끝으로 한국어 학습자를 위해 좋은 책을 기획하고 집필을 제안해 준 다락원 한국어출판부 편집진과 좋은 영상을 만들기 위해 노력해 준 페이버릿 멤버들과 관계자 여러분들께 깊은 감사의 말씀을 드립니다. 이 책이 한국 여행을 계획하고 있는 해외의 K-Pop 팬들에게 많은 도움이 될 수 있기를 진심으로 바라봅니다.

PREFACE

K-Pop fever, instead of dying down over time, has been traveling around the world with increasing popularity. K-Pop fans, too, have been changing compared to before. No longer are they content to simply look up videos of K-Pop artists on the Internet. More and more fans are visiting or want to visit Korea in the hope of meeting their favorite K-Pop artists in person and experiencing the Korean culture that they've seen on the Internet.

So who are these K-Pop travelers that love K-Pop and even plan trips to Korea? How old are they, and what kinds of trip do they want to go on? Where do they want to stay? What kinds of foods do they want to eat? Where do they want to go? In addition, what are some useful Korean expressions that will come in handy for various situations they will find themselves during their stay in Korea?

I, along with the Korean Editorial Dept. at Darakwon, put our heads together to answer these questions in the form of a book, Korean for K-Pop Travelers, which incorporates survey results from foreigners, is a book containing the most essential Korean expressions for K-Pop travelers who have decided to make their way to Korea and also provides a guide for a trip that's best suited for their purposes and lifestyles.

This book was conceptualized based on a storytelling technique, which takes K-Pop travelers through 5 days and 4 nights in Seoul while on a visit to see a concert by their favorite K-Pop artist. What sets this book apart is that you can see the whole itinerary for the trip and Korean expressions being enacted in video form. To do this, members of K-Pop group Favorite travel to the hottest tourist spots and see, taste, and feel what these places have to offer—all captured on video. The video clips highlight the appeal of these tourist attractions and include useful Korean expressions along with English subtitles to aid in the viewers' understanding.

Finally, I would like to express my deep gratitude to the Korean Editorial Dept. at Darakwon for planning and proposing the writing of such a great book for Korean learners and to the members of Favorite and everyone else who worked hard to make the great video clips. I sincerely hope that this book will be of great help to international K-Pop fans who are planning to travel to Korea.

This works as an index, which you can use to check the itinerary for the 5-day trip.

● Expressions

주제와 상황에 맞는 가장 실용적인 한국어 표현을 제시하였습니다. 각각의 상황별 표현으로 녹음 파일을 통해 정확한 발음을 확인하고 연습할 수 있습니다. 각 문장은 한국어 문장의 로마자 표기와 함께 영어 번역이 제시되어 더욱 빠르게 이해될 수 있도록 했습니다.

(※ 로마자 표기는 '국어의 로마자 표기법'을 기준으로 했습니다. "한글표" 12p 참조)

We provide the most practical Korean expressions for each theme and situation. You can use the audio files for each expression to learn the proper pronunciation and to practice saying it out loud. Each sentence is Romanized and translated into English to aid your understanding.

(※ Romanization follows the standard of Revised The Romanization of Korea. Refer to the Hangeul table on page. 12).

● Let's say more sentences!

앞에서 제시된 기본 표현 외에 연습해 볼 수 있는 다양한 표현들로 구성하였으며, 실제 대화에서도 바로 사용할 수 있는 예문들을 선별하였습니다.

This section gives you the opportunity to practice expressions in addition to the ones provided above. We picked a variety of expressions that you'll be able to use right away in real life conversations.

Useful Patterns

한국어 표현에서 반복되어 사용되거나 문법적으로 자주 보이는 조사나 부사 등의 활용 내용을 쉽게 설명하여 정리하였습니다.

We explain commonly used patterns in Korean expressions, including particles and adverbs, in a clear, concise manner.

Useful Patterns

~ 있어요(?)

- isseoyo (?)

Is there - / There is - / Do you have -? / I have -

007

You use this pattern when you want to ask if something exists. You can also use it to ask the other person if he or she has something. If the intonation goes up at the end, it is a question. If it goes down, it's a statement.

- SIM 카드 있어요?

Sim kadeu isseoyo?

Do you have a SIM card?
- 교통카드 있어요?

Gyotongkadeu isseoyo?

Do you have a transit fare payment card?
- 여권 있어요.

Yeogwon isseoyo.

I have a passport.
- 만원 있어요.

Man won isseoyo.

I have ten thousand won.

Let's Practice!

물 water	라이터 lighter	+ 있어요? #isseoyo? Is/Are there - / Do you have -?
우산 umbrella	휴지 tissue
담배 cigarettes	진동제 park-killers
잔돈 change (pennies)

● Romanization of Korean

로마자 표기법은 한글을 모르는 외국인이 로마자로 적힌 한국어 지명이나 인명 등을 보고 이를 최대한 한국 사람과 가깝게 발음하여 읽을 수 있도록 돕기 위한 표기 방식입니다. 이는 로마자를 빌려서 한국어를 표현하는 표기 방식이기 때문에 로마자의 일반적인 배열 순서나 발음 방식이 로마자를 활용하여 표기하는 다른 많은 언어들과는 다를 수밖에 없습니다. 그러므로 이 책에서 사용하고 있는 로마자 표기법을 보다 올바르게 활용하기 위해서는 아래의 표를 참고하여 한글 자·모음의 로마자 표기 방식과 발음 방법을 충분히 익히고 책의 본 내용으로 들어가시길 바라겠습니다.

Romanization is a system in which Latin script is used to write Korean words such as the names of places and people so that non-Korean speakers can pronounce these words as close to native speakers of Korean as possible. As it borrows the Latin script to represent the Korean language, the way letters are arranged and pronounced inevitably differs from the Romanization of other languages. Therefore, in order to make proper use of the Romanization found in this book, it is highly recommended that you familiarize yourself with the way Korean letters are romanized and pronounced by consulting the following chart before you read the book.

▶ 한글 자음 Hangeul Consonants

[k],[g]	[k]	[n]	[t],[d]	[t]	[l],[r]	[m]
ㄱ	ㅋ	ㄴ	ㄷ	ㅌ	ㄹ	ㅁ
[p],[b]	[p]	[s]	[j]	[ch]	[ng]	[h]
ㅂ	ㅍ	ㅅ	ㅈ	ㅊ	ㅇ	ㅎ
[kk]	[tt]	[pp]	[ss]	[jj]
ㄲ	ㄸ	ㅃ	ㅆ	ㅉ

▶ 한글 모음 Hangeul Vowels

[a]	[eo]	[o]	[u]	[eu]	[i]	[ae]	[e]
ㅏ	ㅓ	ㅗ	ㅜ	ㅡ	ㅣ	ㅙ	ㅛ
[ya]	[yeo]	[yo]	[yu]	[yae]	[ye]
ㅑ	ㅕ	ㅛ	ㅠ	ㅞ	ㅟ
[wa]	[wae]	[wo]	[we]	[oe]	[wi]	[ui]
ㅓ	ㅖ	ㅜ	ㅠ	ㅡ	ㅣ	ㅣ

한국어의 로마자 표기는 한국어의 표준 발음법에 따라 적는 것을 원칙으로 합니다. 기본적으로 한글의 자·모음과 로마자가 대부분 1:1로 대응되어 있지만 실제로 적용될 때는 여러 발음 규칙을 반영하기 때문에 아래 표의 발음과 다르게 나타날 있습니다. 예를 들어 ‘종로’의 경우 ‘ㅈ = j, ㅊ = o, ㅇ = ng, ㄹ = r(l) ㅊ = o’이므로 ‘Jongro’로 표기된다고 생각되겠지만 ‘종로’를 한국 사람들이 실제로 발음할 때는 발음 규칙에 의해서 [중노]로 발음하기 때문에 로마자 표기는 이를 반영하여 ‘Jongno’라고 표기하게 됩니다.

The Romanization of Korean is based on the principle of following the standard pronunciation of the Korean language. In principle, each Korean consonant and vowel has a corresponding romanized form, but in practice, there are several pronunciation rules at play that may result in pronunciation that is different from how it is Romanized on the chart. For example, the word “종로” consists of “ㅈ = j, ㅊ = o, ㅇ = ng, ㄹ = r(l), ㅊ = o,” so it may be assumed that it is romanized as “Jongro.” However, in accordance with pronunciation rules, Koreans pronounce it [중노], and the Romanization, reflecting this, becomes “Jongno.”

~ 있어요(?)

~ isseoyo (?)

Is there ~ / There is ~ / Do you have ~? / I have ~

You use this pattern when you want to ask if something exists. You can also use it to ask the other person if he or she has something. If the intonation goes up at the end, it is a question. If it goes down, it's a statement.

Tip T-money(티-머니) T-Money

T-Money is a public transit fare payment card in Korea. You can use the card to get on the subway or the bus. If you have enough money on the card, you can even pay for your taxi fare or use it to buy groceries at convenience stores. Generally, you buy a card first and then load money onto it prior to using it. You can get discounts on public transit if you have a T-money card, so it's a good idea to purchase one when you visit Korea.

숙소 체크인과 주변 탐사

Checking into the Hotel and Exploring the Area

After your bus ride, you finally made it to your hotel. A little nervous, you head to the front desk and the person there your name and reservation information. Everything goes smoothly. Once you're in your room, check thoroughly to see if everything you need is there. This will be your home for a little while. Once that's done, ask about what kinds of facilities are available in the area.

Ondol is a traditional Korean floor heating system. It is an underfloor heating system, in which heat passes through the underside of the floor. This is why in traditional settings Koreans sleep on the warm floors with a comforter, rather than using a bed. Trying one of these Ondol Rooms will be a great way to experience traditional Korean culture.

Tip 식당에서의 호칭 How to Address the Staff at a Restaurant

If you want to talk to the owner of the establishment, you call for “사장님 Sajangnim” (boss). If you want to talk to a female employee at the restaurant, you say “아주머니 ajumeoni” (Mrs.) or “아가씨 agassi” (Miss) depending on their age. Use “아주머니” for older women and “아가씨” for younger women. Some people call older female employees “이모님 imonim” or “고모님 gomnim” (aunt) to sound friendly. But generally, you can ask for help by saying “여기요 yeogiyo” or “저기요 jegiyo” (Excuse me), which is gender neutral and most commonly used.

동대문에서 쇼핑 후 광장시장으로!

Shopping at Dongdaemun and heading to Gwangjang Market!

Did you know that at Dongdaemun History & Culture Park Station, you can find Dongdaemun Design Plaza (DDP), which is a major urban landmark in Seoul, so you will see an eclectic mix of modernity and tradition here.

Then, when you're done shopping, head over to Gwangjang Market to enjoy all the street vendor foods you want and to experience Korea's traditional street market.

이, 그, 저~

i~, geu ~, jeo~
This ~/It, That ~/That ~

This is used when you are pointing at a specific object. When you're pointing at something close, you use 이것(이거). When it's far from you but close to the person you are talking to, you use 그것(그거). If it's far from both you and the other person, you say 저것(저거).

	것(거) geot(geo)	것은(건) geoseun(geon)	것이(게) geosi(ge)	것을(걸) geoseul(geol)	곳 got
이 this I	이거 igeo	이건 igeon	이게 ige	이걸 igeol	이곳(여기) igot(yeogi)

저 that jeo	저거 jeogeo	저건 jeoelon	저게 jeoге	저걸 jeoгеol	저곳(저기) jeogot(jeogi)

* In Korean, there are certain particles that are attached to nouns depending on how they are used grammatically. If the noun acts as the topic of the sentence, you put 은 or 는 after it. For the subject of the sentence, you use 이 or 가. For objects, you use 을 or 를. 거, 건, 게, 걸 are shortened forms of 것, 것은, 것이, 것을, respectively. When you add 곳 after 이, 그, 저 to indicate location, they become 여기(here), 저기(there), and 거기(there) respectively.

Tip 카드 Vs 현금 Card vs. Cash

Koreans are avid credit card users, and street vendors and small stores at street markets accept credit card payments for even small purchases. However, these vendors have to pay a fee to credit card companies for all credit card purchases, so many of them offer a discount (of the amount of the fee) if you pay by cash.

경복궁 수문장 교대 의식 관람

The Royal Guard Changing Ceremony at Gyeongbok Palace

Today is all about experiencing traditional Korean culture! The most important mission of the day is to see the Royal Guard Changing Ceremony at Gyeongbokgung (Gyeongbokgung Palace), one of the most iconic artifacts in Korea. Pretend you're a time traveler, take yourself back hundreds of years in Korean history, and explore all that Gyeongbokgung has to offer.

인사동에서 전통차 한잔!

A Cup of Traditional Tea at Insadong

Now it's time to explore the streets of Insadong, where you can find markets for antiques and other traditional items. When you get tired, walk into a teahouse and try some traditional tea. You'll get a taste that is unlike anything you've had before. Then, take a Korean traditional craft workshop and make simple items of your own. These will make wonderful souvenirs to remember your trip by.

시티 투어 시작!

Let's Begin the Tour of the City!

It's day 3 of our trip to Seoul. Today, we are embarking on a tour of Seoul! We spent the past two days visiting the major tourist spots in Seoul, and now it's time to check out the hottest, trendiest hangouts for Seoulites. We'll walk around huge shopping malls, sip cups of coffee, visit bookstores to look at Korean books, and buy stationery with adorable trendy characters on it!

서울 안의 작은 지구촌, 이태원

Itaewon, a Taste of the World in Seoul

Did you know that Seoul has a very efficient, reliable network of bus routes on par with its subway system? A bus will take you much closer to your destination than the subway can. So if you're ready, let's head to Itaewon, the most exotic place in Seoul.

Practice

~ (좀) 갖다주세요.

~ (jom) gatda juseyo.

Could you bring me/us ~?

This pattern is used when you want to ask for something at a restaurant or a bar. By definition, it's not very different from ~ 주세요 that we covered earlier. However, ~ 주세요 is used more broadly, including when ordering, whereas this pattern has more limited usage, such as when asking for certain objects (like a cup) or banchan at a restaurant.

● 잔 좀 갖다주세요.

Jan jom gatda juseyo.

Could you bring me/us a shot glass?

● 물티슈 좀 갖다주세요.

Multisyu jom gatda juseyo.

Could you bring me/us some wet wipes?

● 여기 앞 접시 좀 갖다주세요.

Yeogi apjeopsi jom gatda juseyo.

Could you bring me/us some small plates over here?

● 여기 무 좀 더 갖다주세요.

Yeogi mu jom deo gatda juseyo.

~이/가 아파요.

~i/ga apayo.

I have a ~ache. / My ~ hurts

190

You can use this pattern to talk about where you are feeling pain. Nouns ending in a consonant are used with ~이, and those ending in a vowel are used with ~가.

● 배가 아파요.

Baega apayo.

I have a stomachache.

● 머리가 아파요.

~이/가 나요.

~i/ga nayo.

I have a ~ / ~ is -ing.

You can use this pattern to talk about a symptom. The verb 나다 means that something that was latent is now coming into form, and is used in a variety of circumstances. In this case, it's used to describe the manifestation of a symptom.

● 열이 나요.

Yeorī nayo.

I have a fever.

● 손에서 피가 나요.

Tip 치맥 Chicken and Beer

Certain types of alcohol and food go well together and are often had together. In Korea, some of these combinations include 파전 (scallion pancake) and 맥걸리 (Korean rice wine), 삼겹살 (pork belly) and 소주, and 치킨 and 맥주 (beer). Chicken is beloved by Koreans and is eaten in various ways. And Koreans tend to enjoy their chicken with beer, so the word 치맥 is widely used to refer to this combination, which is a short form of 치킨 맥주.

~ (으)ㄴ 지 얼마나 됐어요?

~ (eu)n ji eolmana dwaesseoyo?

How long has it been since ~?

You use this pattern when you're asking how long something has been going on since it began. You remove the ~다 from the root verb, and change it to ~은 지 if it ends in a consonant and ~ㄴ 지 if it ends in a vowel.

- 팬이 된 지 얼마나 됐어요?

콘서트 공연 준비하기

How to Prepare for a Concert

- 1 Bottled water becomes more expensive the closer you are to the concert venue. So buy it in advance at a convenience store.
- 2 Your cheer sticks may run out of battery power during the concert, so make sure to have spare batteries.
- 3 If you want to buy merchandise at a concert venue, you have to arrive early and wait in line. If you arrive late, there's a high chance the stuff you want will be sold out.

Tip 나이 물어보는 기본 Asking a person's age right away

In Korea, asking a stranger you've just met his/her age is very common and is not rude at all. Knowing each other's age informs people of seniority and thus how to address and talk to one another, so Koreans have no reservations about asking your age when first meeting someone. When addressing an older person in Korean, males address an older male as "형" and an older female as "누나" while females address an older male as "오빠" (older brother) and an older female as "언니" (older sister). You use these terms even if the person you're addressing is not related to you by blood.

This pattern is used if you would like someone's permission to do something or when you want to ask if something you're about to do is allowed. Take the verb which describes what you would like to do and remove the 다 at the end. If the last vowel of the verb is ㅏ(o) or ㅑ(a), say ~아도 돼요? If the last vowel is ㅜ(u), ㅛ(eo), ㅟ(eu), or ㅝ(i), use ~어도 돼요? There is one exception: if the original verb ends in 하다, you use ~ 해요?

서울에서의 마지막 날

Last Day in Seoul

It's already the last day of our wonderful trip. We have to get to the airport on time, but is there a way we can make the most of our last moments here? I know! Why don't we go shopping at a grocery store close to the airport railway? Let's fill up our suitcases with our purchases from the store and head to the airport!

K-POP KOREAN

Learning a foreign language means to speak, listen, read, and write in that target language. When one can enjoy that learning process, it would be the most effective way to study the language. This book has the key to enjoy learning Korean. Learning Korean would be a lot more fun and easy with K-Pop Korean which has lots of useful Korean expressions.

- Jeong Eun Hwa, Korean Language Institute of Hongik University -

This book is wonderful for people who have interest in K-Pop. Not only does it translate the song, but it helps you learn Korean more. It helps you understand the meaning behind each song.

- Anisha K. Harilal, High-school student, USA -

K-Pop Korean introduces not only popular Korean songs but also somewhat unfamiliar songs to the listeners. They do help Korean learners to understand Korean spirit and the latest Korean music trends better. It is a fun book as you can enjoy K-Pop and naturally pick up Korean at the same time.

- Wang Yuyao, Designer, China -
